2019 Farwest Show boasts urban meditation spaces in Growing Trends Showcase

Portland, Oregon (July 19, 2019) — At the 2019 Farwest Show, the annual Growing Trends Showcase will give attendees a first-hand look at private, intimate and secluded gardens that are gaining popularity in compact yards of urban properties. Sponsored by AmericanHort, the exhibit will feature unique outdoor spaces that landscape designers and garden center staff are creating for customers seeking a place to relax, read or meditate. In addition to display and merchandising ideas, the showcase will feature plants from exhibiting growers who can provide options for offering this design trend.

The Growing Trends Showcase is located on the Farwest Show floor and entrance is free to attendees. For detailed information, visit <https://farwestshow.com/event/growing-trends-showcase/>

The 2019 Farwest Show will take place August 21–23 in Portland, Oregon. Complete details on events, daily schedules, speakers, and education can be found at www.farwestshow.com. For questions, contact: Kelsey Hood, event and program coordinator, at 503-582-2010 and khoo@oan.org.

The Oregon Association of Nurseries (OAN), based in Wilsonville, represents nearly 800 wholesale growers, retailers, landscapers and suppliers. Oregon's ornamental horticulture industry is one of the state's largest agricultural commodities, with annual sales of $947 million. Oregon's nursery industry is a traded sector; nearly 80 percent of the nursery plants grown in Oregon are shipped out of state. For information, visit www.oan.org or call 503-682-5089.

The Farwest Show, the largest green industry show in the West, is produced by the OAN, a trade organization that represents and serves the interests of the ornamental horticulture industry. Any revenue realized by the OAN is reinvested into the industry through education, research, marketing support and government relations. For more information about the 2019 Farwest Show, visit www.FarwestShow.com or call 503-682-5089.
