

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

2019 Farwest Show Solution Center to provide key information for landscape professionals

Portland, Oregon (July 19, 2019) — The 2019 Farwest Show, August 21-23, in Portland, Oregon has planned free live mini-sessions with particular interest for landscapers, including both owners and employees, at the Solution Center on the Oregon Convention Center show floor. The informative sessions, sponsored by GIE Garden Center and Nursery Management magazines, take place each day during the show. Landscape attendees will gain knowledge and insights for building and maintaining successful businesses.

Scheduled 30-minute presentations from industry experts will touch on relevant subjects including groundcover and native plants, relevant trends and plants outside the U.S. market, the challenge of boxwood blight, human resource issues, current industry research, and much more.

Solution Center mini-sessions are free to attendees and located on the show floor at the end of aisle 10000. The series begins at 1:15 p.m. on Wednesday, August 21 and runs the course of the show with the final talk at 12:30 p.m. on Friday, August 23. The talks are designed to give attendees an educational reprieve from the busy show floor.

The complete schedule, speakers, and topics for the Solution Center can be found online at <https://farwestshow.com/events/category/mini-session/>

Complete details on events, daily schedules, speakers, and education for Farwest 2019 can be found at www.farwestshow.com. For questions, contact: Zen Landis, event and education manager at 503-582-2011 and zlandis@oan.org

The Oregon Association of Nurseries (OAN), based in Wilsonville, represents nearly 800 wholesale growers, retailers, landscapers and suppliers. Oregon's ornamental horticulture industry is one of the state's largest agricultural commodities, with annual sales of $947 million. Oregon's nursery industry is a traded sector; nearly 80 percent of the nursery plants grown in Oregon are shipped out of state. For information, visit www.oan.org or call 503-682-5089.

The Farwest Show, the largest green industry show in the West, is produced by the OAN, a trade organization that represents and serves the interests of the ornamental horticulture industry. Any revenue realized by the OAN is reinvested into the industry through education, research, marketing support and government relations.
